Projects

- Soil Classification & Crop Recommendation System Python | TensorFlow/Keras | CNN | MobileNetV2 | OpenCV | Pandas | Flask
  - Developed a deep learning-based system to classify soil images into four soil categories using CNN and MobileNetV2 transfer learning.
  - Applied transfer learning using MobileNetV2 to build an image classification model on a custom soil image dataset.
  - Developed a crop recommendation component based on the classified soil type to support data-driven agricultural decisions.
  - Integrated the trained model into a Flask-based web application that allows users to upload soil images and receive classification and crop recommendations.
