AREA OF INTEREST

- Java Development
- Web Development
- Database Management
- Deep Learning

CAREER OBJECTIVE

Electronics and Communication Engineering undergraduate with knowledge of Java and MS SQL Server through academic projects and internship. Interested in software development and problem solving. Looking for an entry-level software engineering role to apply my skills and learn new technologies.

PROJECTS

Brain Tumour Detection and Classification using Deep Learning

Developed a deep learning-based system for brain tumour detection and classification using MRI brain images. Applied image preprocessing and classification techniques to identify different types of brain tumours and support accurate brain tumour diagnosis using deep learning.

Tools: Python, TensorFlow, Keras, Google Colab, VS Code

A Graph Neural Network Based Intelligent System for Pulmonary Disease Diagnosis

Developed a Graph Neural Network-based system for pulmonary disease diagnosis using chest X-ray images. Applied image preprocessing and deep learning techniques to classify different pulmonary diseases and support accurate and early disease diagnosis.

Tools: Python, TensorFlow, Keras, Google Colab, VS Code

INTERNSHIP

Knila IT Solutions (I) Pvt. Ltd. - MS SQL Intern - June 2024

- Assisted in writing SQL queries for data retrieval and data management.
- Worked with Microsoft SQL Server to perform operations and manage databases.
- Supported database design, query optimization, and basic database maintenance tasks.

CO - CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Participated in College-Level Hackathons
- Participated in Technical Symposium Events
- Presented Innovative Technical Projects
- Active Member of IETE Student Chapter

CERTIFICATES

- Java Programming – YellowMatics (2024)
- NPTEL (Elite) – Introduction to Industry 4.0 & IoT (2025)
- PCB Design and Fabrication - Wizard Systems
- Japanese Language Proficiency (JLPT) – N5 & N4

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Secured Second Prize in Intra College Hackathon - Gensis 2026
- Secured Second Prize in Technical Quiz - Selvam College of Engineering
